

Local radio is needed in this time of over homogenized corporate slop we call American radio. I don't want to hear clear channels perspective on 1,000+ different radio stations, I want to here diverse points of view, I want to hear everyone, and I want us all to have a chance to communicate on the "public airwaves". Thank you very much.